

Presenting in a Group

Preparing Material

- Select a group leader. Someone that will keep the group on track.
- Set clear expectations and deadlines.
- Foster a supportive and respectful environment for problem-solving.
- Organize tasks and content for equal participation.
- Decide collectively on the use of notecards for consistency.
- Ensure visual aids maintain a cohesive theme.
- Seek assistance from the instructor for issue resolution.

During the Presentation

- Engage with fellow group members' presentations to keep the audience interested. Ensure smooth transitions between speakers through rehearsal.
- Maintain a unified front with the group regardless of personal opinions.
- Support struggling members without impatience or annoyance.
