

Field Training Officer Certification Course

Feb. 7-11, 2022 and
August 15-19, 2022

8 am - 5 pm, Monday - Friday
Five Days (40 Hours)

South Piedmont Community College

4209 Old Charlotte Hwy.

Monroe, NC 28110

Building A, Room: TBD

Who Should Attend

Law enforcement officers who are or will be assigned to provide Field Training to new officers. The focus of this course is primarily for patrol and detention officers, but uses the same methodologies as on-the-job training for telecommunicators or Crime Scene Investigators.

Course Goal

To provide the technical and personal skills to individuals in order for them to function as evaluators and trainers of recruits who have completed Basic Law Enforcement Training and DOCC (Jail School)

Methodologies:

This course employs lecture, discussion, practical exercises and demonstrations.

Course Objectives:

- Objectively evaluate the performances of trainees.
- Utilize performance feedback, counseling and training skills in the interaction with trainees.
- Successfully utilize leadership skills and attributes.
- Evaluate and counsel trainees in report writing and note-taking skills.

Course Requirements:

Attendance is required at all class sessions. In order to satisfactorily complete this course, the participant must actively participate in all classroom discussions and activities; and, obtain a minimum score of 70% on a written test to be given at the conclusion of the course.

Students must bring their agency's Field Training Officer Procedures Manual, and blank copies of their Daily Observation Reports (DORs).

Required Material: Field Training Officer Manual (Can be purchased from the NCJA Bookstore)

Instructor:
John Collins

Cost:
Free to Law Enforcement

REGISTRATION, CONTACT:

Mark Coan | 704.290.5247 | mcoan@spcc.edu